

Recreational options are all part of quality-of-life Cambridge offers. There are 14 golf courses within a 30 minute drive of the City.

Whether relocating, expanding or forging new opportunities, Cambridge is a great place to do business. Located within an hour's drive of Metropolitan Toronto, Cambridge offers everything you need for establishing or growing your business success.

Location, Location, Location.

We're strategically located – connected by four major highways, with five interchanges from Highway 401. Toronto and Hamilton seaports are a short drive away, as is Canada's busiest airport, Pearson International.

A Ready Workforce. Cambridge offers your business access to over 450,000 skilled and semi-skilled labourers.

Economic Success. Some of the world's leading and award-winning manufacturing, industrial and high-technology companies have selected Cambridge as their headquarters, choosing to grow and expand their international business opportunity from our City.

A Nice Place to Call Home. Cambridge is a great place to do business. It's also a great place to live. The City is rich in heritage and tradition. More than 100,000 people now call Cambridge home, and enjoy the daily benefits of this area's relaxed quality of life. For more information on how to grow your business or make your business home in Cambridge, please contact the Economic Development Division.

Factory outlet stores, antique shops & quaint downtown neighbourhoods provide an abundance of shopping opportunities for visitors.

In 1994, the Grand River became the first urban waterway to be named a Canadian Heritage River, and is popular with sports fishermen.

The Corporation of the City of Cambridge

Cambridge offers an excellent assortment of accommodations for visitors travelling for both business or pleasure – from first-rate bed & breakfast establishments to hotels and luxury country inns, such as the historic Langdon Hall Country House Hotel (pictured above).

“In Cambridge you can find all the conveniences of a big city, with world-class accommodations, ample shopping and leisure activities, with all of the quality of life you would find in a small town. Why go anywhere else.”

