

For Immediate Release
Attention Photo and News Editors

New Memorial Recognizes Fallen Soldiers - Dedication Ceremony Slated for Saturday, November 10th

Cambridge, Ontario. November 8, 2007. A new memorial to recognize those who served in the Canadian Forces and the United States Forces in Vietnam will be unveiled by Cambridge Mayor Doug Craig and members of the City Council and staff on Saturday, November 10, 2007.

Supplied by Dumfries Superior Memorials, the black granite monument is located in Queen's Square near the existing cenotaph. The new monument is in memory of the men and women who have died serving in the Canadian Forces since 1954 or in the Vietnam War. To date, the monument recognizes fallen members of the Warren and Woodfield families.

The Royal Canadian Legion-Galt Branch 121 was a partner with the City of Cambridge in providing financial support for the memorial project. Representatives from Royal Canadian Legion-Preston Branch 126 and The Royal Canadian Legion-Hespeler Branch 272 will also join in the dedication to honour those who died with connections to our community.

"We invite the community to join us as we unveil the new memorial and pay tribute to Baxter Warren and Braun Woodfield who serve in the war efforts," says Mayor Doug Craig. "The City will continue to seek information about others who might be added to the monument."

Join other prominent members of the community for the Dedication Ceremony:

Date: Saturday, November 10, 2007
Time: 10:30 am to 11:00 am
Place: Queen's Square, Cambridge

-30-

The City of Cambridge is one of the fastest growing areas in the country. It is strategically located astride highway 401 in Southwestern Ontario, part of Canada's Technology Triangle. In 2007, the population reached over 124,000 people with a multicultural mix and a strong foundation of support services. Cambridge has a diverse economic base with leading industries in manufacturing, automotive, high technology, pharmaceutical, business and financial services and hospitality/retail. The Corporation of the City of Cambridge is an employer with a work environment that offers the opportunity to provide service to the community through creativity and innovation, and with opportunities for career growth and advancement.

For more information on the area or the corporation visit www.city.cambridge.on.ca