David Durward Centre's Annual Christmas Bazaar
Allan Reuter Centre Kicks Off Bringing Local Treasures to the Community

Cambridge, Ontario. November 6, 2008.... There's nothing better than getting into the Christmas spirit early and selecting a one of a kind, locally crafted gift for a friend or family member. Two special events are slated for the public that you should know about:

This Saturday, November 8th between 9:00 am -1:00 pm, Allan Reuter Centre, located at 507 King Street East across from Preston Medical Centre, will offer a wonderful range of Christmas gift ideas. There will be a variety of vendors with crafts, books and even a White Elephant Table for the community. The Tea Room will serve hot soup and scones to round off the morning. Special visits from the 50+ Centre Wood Workers and the jolly man himself, Old St. Nick will highlight the event. All proceeds go to the Allan Reuter Centre Operating Board, which provides subsidies for programs and equipment to enhance the Allan Reuter Centre.

David Durward Hosts

The David Durward Centre, located at 62 Dickson Street, will offer residents that opportunity as staff and volunteers will again host the Annual Christmas Bazaar slated for Saturday, November 22, 2008.

Beginning at 9am and running through to 1pm, the event provides a much anticipated venue for local woodworking masterpieces, crafts and related materials, buttons, baked goods, jams and relishes, knitted and crocheted items, antique and designer jewelry, Christmas décor, mystery parcels and much more. The public is invited to also partake in an assortment of delicious homemade foods as part of the lunch menu.

All proceeds go to the David Durward Centre Operating Board, which provides subsidies for programs and equipment to enhance the David Durward Centre.

A place for innovative fitness, arts and culture, culinary, special interest, woodworking, drop in and educational programs, the David Durward Centre provides services to people aged 50+ in the Cambridge community. Located in downtown Galt at 62 Dickson Street, the top notched facility recently celebrated membership growth with some 1035 members enjoying the facility.
