Candyland - Christmas in Cambridge Live Performances, Family Activities Continue

Cambridge, Ontario. December 3, 2008...The series of Christmas in Cambridge events continue this weekend in the city.

On Saturday December 6 from 12:00 noon until 5:00 pm, Central Park in Preston Towne Centre becomes a magical Candyland filled with giant candy kebobs, donut bumpers, retro candy, gingerbread houses, ice candy, the Maynard's Candy Fun Show, the Jelly Belly Challenge and more. Games for all ages include a new Plinko, giant Kerplunk, family labyrinth, ice building blocks, sweet treats track, snowy sugar mountain and the Candyland train.

The event also features some of the best in children's entertainment - the 2008 Canadian Children's Group of the Year, the Smudge Fundaes perform at 12:00 noon and 1:00 pm. Ronno will energize the audience at 2:00 pm, and finally Splash 'n Boots brings a fresh and lively act at 3:15 pm and 4:15 pm.

Santa & Mrs. Claus will gather Christmas wishes, and when your toes get chilly folks can enjoy a warm drink and make some crafts inside Knox Presbyterian Church beside the park.

Candyland continues in Central Park from Sunday, December 7 to Sunday, December 14. On weekends from 12:00 noon - 8:00 pm and weeknights from 4:00 - 8:00 pm, people can ride the carousel, play a variety of games and enjoy the beautiful lights in the park. Candyland in Central Park creates sweet lasting memories for all!
