Volunteers honoured for 10 years of service

Published on May 06, 2008

If volunteers are the backbone of any community, Cambridge is well supported.

Cambridge council honoured 13 volunteers last week who helped the community services department for 10 or more years.

Mayor Doug Craig presented awards to: Robert Fearon, Helen Lewis, Bruce Morrison and Jean Pearce for their work at the David Durward Seniors Centre; Ed Mittlestead for volunteering at the Allan Reuter Centre; and Eileen Porter at Hespeler's Ted Wake Lounge. Tour de Grand volunteers were Ray Miske, Don Pavey, Murray Priest, Don Rope, Bob Scherer and Russell Schultz, and Brad Gibbs from the Arthur White Sports Bursary Committee.
