

Cambridge Hosts The Waterloo Wellington Senior Summer Games

So, you think you can .... golf, swim, walk, play badminton or scrabble?

By Celeste Walker

The Waterloo Wellington District 26 Senior Summer Games is an annual event for men and women 55 years of age and older. This is the 26th year of the Games.

District 26 includes the cities of Cambridge, Guelph, Kitchener and Waterloo, and the Townships of Centre-Wellington, Woolwich and Wilmot.

In the past, the Games have seen over 1,000 participants taking part in 20 events that take winners from the District 26 competition to the Regional Games Competition where they can qualify to continue on to the Ontario Senior Games called Actifest, held bi-annually in August.

If you think you're really good at any of these sports or activities, then Register to compete.
