Hilborn Pottery Honored with Award for Community Service

CAMBRIDGE, ON - Hilborn Pottery Design Inc. was honoured recently with Cambridge, Ontario's prestigious Mayor's Award for community service.

The nomination came from the various charitable associations in Cambridge, and was presented at the Mayor's Gala to celebrate contributors and volunteers. At the gala Hilborn Pottery Design was chosen as the winner. Nancy and Rick Hilborn were in attendance to accept the plaque, which now hangs in a prominent position on their studio store wall.

The following is the exact message in the program for Mayor's Gala.

"Nancy and Rick Hilborn are well known Cambridge artisans that have donated their work and time towards numerous activities that support the Cambridge not for profit community since 1975. They have been creating innovative, colorful, functional and handmade designs in a vast array of selected patterns that are known throughout North America and beyond. With their outstanding support of the arts community and their distinct work it is no surprise that the Hilborns have been nominated for the Mayor's Award for small business."
