Cambridge Girl's Choir Performs at City Hall City Council Welcomes Youth

Cambridge, Ontario.
March 3, 2009...Cambridge
City Council last night kicked off the meeting with a new element - a performance by the Cambridge Girl's Choir.
The group is part of the Fiddlesticks
Neighbourhood Association and members range in age between 8 - 18.

Members of Cambridge
City Council were delighted to have the group join the meeting. Cambridge Mayor Doug Craig welcomed the singers saying young people are very important to our community. "The performance here at City Hall emphasizes how important this facility is to community building. It presents a wonderful platform for young people to share their talents."

Ward Councillor Linda Whethem commented that she was really proud to see her neighbourhood group come to City Hall. "The choir did a fantastic job and the performance was especially interesting as songs were delivered in English, French and Swahili."

The group performed several numbers including a song by local composer Steven Bergen entitled The Palm of Our Hand. Pictured above is soloist Olivia Mann and members of the Cambridge Girl's Choir.
