Two Annual Favourites Celebrate the Onset of Christmas
Local Treasures Just in Time for the Holidays

Cambridge, Ontario. November 2, 2009.... Finding something unique for that special someone is going to be easier this year if you attend a series of Christmas Bazaars in Cambridge. The David Durward Centre, 62 Dickson Street, and the Allan Reuter Centre at 507 King Street East, are hosting their Annual Christmas Bazaars on Saturday, November 14, 2009.

Both events begin at 9:00 am and run through to 1:00 pm, so there's plenty of time to visit each facility. Santa Claus is making a guest appearance at the Allen Reuter Centre in Preston.

The events provide a much anticipated opportunity for showcasing things like local woodworking masterpieces, crafts and related materials, buttons, baked goods, jams and relishes, knitted and crocheted items, antique and designer jewelry, Christmas décor, mystery parcels and much more. Both events have different items for sale, but one thing that's the same is the opportunity to network over lunch and tea.

All proceeds go to the Operating Boards of the centres which provide subsidies for programs and equipment to enhance the community offerings. The centres are geared to citizens aged 50+ in the community but don't let the age category stop you as the facilities offer fitness, educational programs, art and culinary opportunities for people of all ages.
