Cambridge to Hold a Municipal Election Seminar Understanding Election Rules for Candidates

Cambridge, Ontario. November 9, 2009... Thinking of running in the next municipal election? The City of Cambridge and the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing will offer a free municipal elections seminar this Thursday to better acquaint candidates with the details of running a campaign.

'Understanding the Rules on Campaign Contributions/Expenses and Related Financial Statements and More' will be held at Cambridge City Hall, 50 Dickson Street, in the Bowman Room on Thursday November 12, 2009 between 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm.

The agenda will include:

- Brief Introduction - Review of 2010 Boundaries and Commitments required to hold office (City of Cambridge)
- Review of Municipal Sign By-Law as it pertains to Municipal Election Signs (Sign By-Law) (City of Cambridge)
- Candidate Information Session (Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing)
- Questions and Answers

If you would like to register or have questions regarding the seminar on municipal elections, please call 519.740.4680 ext. 4233.

On March 30, 2009, Cambridge City Council adopted By-law 44-09 which established a new 8 ward system for the City. The new wards will be in effect for the 2010 elections. For information and a ward boundary map that depicts the enhancements visit:
