Multi-Sensory Experience 'THE HAPPENING' at Cambridge Centre for the Arts - 1960s multimedia art form expression

Cambridge, Ontario. October 1, 2010...Rockfarm Productions and the Cambridge Centre for the Arts present a unique combination of art forms that culminate in 'The Happening' slated for Saturday, October 16th at 7:00 pm.

In the 1960's fantastic events called 'happenings' blended art, music and film into multi-sensory experiences full of life and creativity. In this same spirit, talented local painter Laurie Wonfor Nolan will capture the essence of 'Matt Storch and The Usual Suspects' on canvas. As the band plays their energetic rock and blues music, her expression also comes to life. As an added bonus, the painting and music is filmed by producers from the Grand River Film Festival (GRFF) and projected onto a screen to enhance the multi-media evening.

"As an artist this is an exciting opportunity for me. I've always played music while I work, but painting in a live concert setting is something amazing," says Nolan. "The energy from these fabulous musicians, the crowd, the excitement - gets channeled into the painting." Add the film aspect, and the audience is treated to a truly unique combination of vastly different art forms.

Don't miss this amazing night at the Cambridge Centre for the Arts and experience art, music, film and creative expression in real time. Tickets are just $15 in advance and include appetizers and refreshments. There's also a cash bar available at the centre. There are two locations in which to pick up tickets: the Groove Kitchen, 656 King Street East, (519) 650-4452; and the Cambridge Centre for the Arts, 60 Dickson Street, (519) 740-4681 ext. 4376.
