Holiday Treasures can be found at Cambridge Community Centres

Cambridge, Ontario. November 10, 2010... The annual Cambridge Christmas Bazaars at two community centres are back on again this year. Details are below:

The Allan Reuter Centre, 507 King Street East, will hold its bazaar on Saturday, November 13 between 9:00 am - 1:00 pm.

The event features a visit from Santa and his elf, along with craft tables, a Tea Room serving a light lunch, Christmas decorations, bake sale, book sale, lucky dip, and a woodworker's craft area.

The David Durward Centre, 62 Dickson Street, will present residents their holiday offerings on Saturday, November 20 between 9:00 am—1:00 pm in the Toyota Auditorium.

A light lunch will be available including unique bazaar elements: baked goods, preserves, used books, Christmas decorations, crafts, craft materials, children's corner, jewelry, knitting, crocheting, mystery parcels, white elephant table, woodworking and local vendors with specialty items.
