Cambridge Visioning Exercise Brings Cross Section of Community Together

Cambridge, Ontario. January 10, 2011...The City of Cambridge will hold a visioning workshop with a variety of community representatives, staff and members of Cambridge City Council tomorrow that will serve as one avenue to help set the priorities and strategic initiatives for the City.

When: Tuesday, January 11th, 2011 at 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm
Where: Bowman Room, Cambridge City Hall, 50 Dickson Street

Participants for the meeting have already confirmed with the City that they'll be involved in this important project. Media representatives are welcome to attend.

The outcome of workshop will be used as guidance for the City's Official Plan review and in preparation of a Sustainability Plan for the corporation. In the coming weeks after the workshop, there will be an online avenue for general public comment about the draft vision based upon the results at the workshop.
