Celebrate Maple Syrup Season with the Cambridge Farmers' Market

Cambridge, Ontario. March 22, 2011... Join in on the celebration at the Cambridge Farmers' Market on Saturday March 26th from 10am to 12pm for a free pancake breakfast to celebrate the tapping of maple trees.

The sap is running and local volunteers are ready to cook up a storm. Enjoy freshly made pancakes by the Wesley United Church topped with locally produced pure maple syrup supplied by market vendor Riverbend Local Harvest. Cambridge Farmers' Market volunteers and local dignitaries including Mayor Doug Craig, and Councillors Gary Price, Frank Monteiro, Donna Reid, Pam Wolf, Ben Tucci, Nicholas Ermeta will be serving pancakes.

Come on out and enjoy maple syrup season and its bounty with a "sweet" treat at the Cambridge Farmers' Market. Weather permitting pancakes will be served outside the Cambridge Farmers' Market at 40 Dickson Street where visitors are invited to enjoy their pancakes and take in the sights and sounds of the market. In the event the weather does not cooperate, pancakes will be served in the basement hall of Wesley United Church.

Let the kids get active and crafty too! Look for the free kid's activities and a craft area located just outside the market. Musical entertainment will be on site as we welcome the community. It's also a time to mark the early opening of the Wednesday market starting May 11th and the outdoor Saturday market as it grows leading into the busy season. Come out, discover the quality, and experience the history at the market.

The City of Cambridge is one of the fastest growing areas in the country. It is strategically located astride highway 401 in Southwestern Ontario, part of Canada's Technology Triangle. In 2010, the population was over 130,000 people with a multicultural mix and a strong foundation of support services. Cambridge has a diverse economic base with leading industries in manufacturing, automotive, high technology, pharmaceutical, business and financial services and hospitality/retail. It's about choice, options and value when you become part of the community.

You meet the nicest people in Cambridge. It's a place that understands all about coming together. There is so much more to Cambridge than the beautiful lands created at the convergence of two rivers or its logistically perfect location in the heart of Ontario's economic corridor. Cambridge is the coming together of people from diverse, close-knit and proud communities. The people of Cambridge 'do the right thing' by respecting history, family values, a sound work ethic, the arts, environment and advancement. A young city, Cambridge is a master of balancing the excitement and promise of the new with the historical significance and stability of the old. A place where coming together is just the start. Uniting together is what sets Cambridge apart. Undiscovered-Cambridge families and entrepreneurs get more for less, and sacrifice nothing.

The Corporation of the City of Cambridge is an employer with a work environment that offers the opportunity to provide service to the community through creativity and innovation, and with potential for career growth and advancement.
