
For Immediate Release

K-W Oktoberfest includes Cambridge Festivities Rotary Club offers three nights of Celebrations - Wonderbar!

Cambridge, Ontario. September 29, 2011 ... Onkel Hans and his new side kicks the Steiners are coming to Cambridge as part of the Cambridge Community Oktoberfest Luncheon, the second annual event hosted by Mayor Craig and members of Cambridge City Council.

The event takes place on Wednesday, October 5th between 11:30am and 1:30pm at Cambridge City Hall (Civic Square), 50 Dickson Street. There will be free sausage, strudel and water on-tap, so make sure to bring a water bottle. The ceremony will be emceed by the Dave FM Morning Crew and it begins at about 12:15pm and includes a Maypole Raising and Keg Tapping, along with dancing with traditional Bavarian music from the Black Forest Band. While this is a free luncheon, we do encourage everyone to bring a donation for the Cambridge Self Help Food Bank.

The City of Cambridge officially joined the K-W Oktoberfest celebrations in 2010.

“We are delighted to have Cambridge on-board,” says Vic Degutis, President of K-W Oktoberfest. Degutis delivered remarks at the media launch last night and noted the importance of Cambridge in the mix of exciting opportunities provided by the K-W Oktoberfest team which includes some 500 community volunteers.

The Cambridge activities also include three nights of celebration provided by the Rotary Club of Cambridge (Preston-Hespeler) on October 6 - 8th. The Cambridge Rotary Haus will be located at the Newfoundland Club, 1500 Dunbar Road.

“We extend an invite to the community to come out and take part in the festivities here in Cambridge,” says Cathy Buchanan, Chair of the events committee for the Rotary Club. “There will be mini keg-tapping ceremonies, traditional dancing along with the customary food and drink offerings.” The events run from 6:00pm - 1:00am and tickets are available by calling Cathy Buchanan at (519) 623-6200.

-30-

The City of Cambridge is one of the fastest growing areas in the country. It is strategically located astride highway 401 in southwestern Ontario, part of Canada's Technology Triangle. In 2010, the population reached over 130,000 people. With a multicultural mix and a strong foundation of support services, Cambridge has a diverse economic base with leading industries in advanced manufacturing, automotive, high technology, pharmaceutical, business and financial services and hospitality/retail. The Corporation of the City of Cambridge is an employer with a progressive work environment that offers the opportunity to provide service to the community through creativity and innovation, and with opportunities for career growth and advancement.

You meet the nicest people in Cambridge. It's a place that understands all about coming together. There is so much more to Cambridge than the beautiful lands created at the convergence of two rivers or its logistically perfect location in the heart of Ontario's economic corridor. Cambridge is the coming together of people from diverse, close-knit and proud communities. The people of Cambridge 'do the right thing' by respecting history, family values, a sound work ethic, the arts, environment and advancement. A young city, Cambridge is a master of balancing the excitement and promise of the new with the historical significance and stability of the old. A place where coming together is just the start. Uniting together is what sets Cambridge apart. Undiscovered-Cambridge families and entrepreneurs get more for less, and sacrifice nothing.

The Corporation of the City of Cambridge is an employer with a work environment that offers the opportunity to provide service to the community through creativity and innovation, and with potential for career growth and advancement. For more information on the area or the corporation visit www.cambridge.ca. The City of Cambridge press room is located at <http://www.cambridge.ca/pressroom>. To opt out of the news release distribution, please send an email to Linda Fegan feganl@cambridge.ca.