

HOMIE SPUMONI

Scenes for the feature film "Homie Spumoni" were filmed in Cambridge on Wednesday, June 15th, 2005. Filming consisted of a large basket floating down the Grand River at the Parkhill Road Bridge/Mill Race Park area.

"Homie Spumoni" is an independent feature film comedy. It is the story of an African-American baby boy lost by his parents in Italy in a boating accident and found and raised by a childless Italian family. After immigrating to America, he grows up Italian, never knowing his birth parents exist until his world is turned upside down when they show up at his front door.

Film Inquiries can be directed to Debbie Fee, Special Projects Officer,
Economic Development, City of Cambridge, 50 Dickson Street
(519) 740-4536 ext.4592
feed@cambridge.ca

