2010 Mayor's Award For Excellence In Workforce Training & Development

The Mayor's Award for Excellence in Workforce Training & Development was established by the City of Cambridge and the Cambridge Training & Development Advisory Group to recognize those organizations in our community demonstrating a clear commitment to the innovative and successful development of their workforce. In honouring these leaders, we hope to underscore the role training and development plays in driving our city's economic growth and prosperity.

IS YOUR ORGANIZATION A LEADER IN TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT?

Successful candidates for the Mayor's Award are organizations with projects or programs that have helped improve the knowledge, performance, and skill of their workforce. Any organization, large or small, private or public, can qualify as a training and development leader.

WHO CAN APPLY:

You are welcome to nominate your own organization, a supplier, or a customer. We want to be sure that we recognize those Cambridge businesses and organizations that are investing in their own workforce and ultimately our community's future. We welcome applicants from all organizations including those who have applied in the past. However, we ask that Mayor's Award winners from the past three years not apply.

HOW TO APPLY:

Simply fill in and mail or fax the Nomination Form. Nominees will be contacted by a Cambridge Training & Development Advisory Group member. The Advisory Group, a volunteer group of people from local businesses and organizations, will make the final award selections. This form is also available in PDF format on the City web site at www.cambridge.ca
