

Preston Towne Market---2011 “ The time is ripe...for the opening”

Thursdays 11-4
June 9th-Oct 6th
Central Park, in the Preston Downtown Core
(Corner of King E. & Argyle)
Cambridge

It's that time of year again when locally grown produce is showing up in greater quantities. Nowhere is this more evident than at the Preston Towne Market located in Central Park, right in the Preston Downtown core.

The Market Preston Towne Market is welcoming back numerous returning vendors, and greeting many new additions, some of which are,

- a Local Organic Collective representing 15 Certified Organic farms,
- Mennonite grown produce
- Flowers, herbs, cheese and Organic Olive oils and many more

We are also welcoming, Sariah Rattana-Middleton onto our team as Market Coordinator. Sariah "...is thrilled with the response from vendors, local farmers, and the community at large! "

Sariah and members of our volunteer planning committee have many exciting events planned this year. They include

- First annual Seniors Event (June 23rd),
- Health and wellness month in July,
- Annual Family Day and
- "The Cook Off!" where local restaurants will be head to head "iron chef style" with seasonal ingredients, samples of their creations and grab a judge ballot at the info booth...It's your vote Cambridge!

In addition, the Preston Towne Market has partnered with Nutrition For Learning in support of a Breakfast Program for Preston Public School, the goal is to promote healthy eating among school children. With help and support from Knox Preston Presbyterian Church- The Panda Breakfast Program launches June 9th!

Mark Thursday's Market on your calendar every week from now until the harvest season is over and Walk, Jog or Bike to your Neighborhood, Preston Town Market!taste the difference and Eat Fresh and Eat Local!
