

FIBREWORKS

Cambridge Galleries presented the 12th Fibreworks exhibition on September 22nd the only national juried exhibition of its kind in Canada. This popular biennial juried exhibition features a broad cross-section of contemporary fibre art selected from across Canada. This year's jury has selected a diverse selection of three dozen artworks from over 150 artist submissions. Awards were announced at the reception on September 20, and several artworks will be recommended for purchase as part of Cambridge Galleries' permanent collection of contemporary Canadian fibre art.

Photography by David Popplow

Art is serious business, Folks...

Jane and Angella in front of Cauda Aquina, by Keith William Bentley

Li Chai and Curator Ivan Jurakic

Angella Silver, curator Ivan Jurakic, and Li Chai

"Lifetime Supply", ear made out of Q Tips