

THE SONS OF MISTLETOE

In June 2001, portions of the film "The Sons of Mistletoe" were filmed in Cambridge. Lower Main St. and the Main St. Bridge formed the backdrop settings for the film.

This is a heartwarming Christmas tale set in the fictional small town of Mistletoe. The Mistletoe Boys Home, always in financial distress, finds itself unable to buy Christmas gifts for the boys. Their benefactor, the owner of a chain of small department stores and a mainstay of the town has passed away.

His daughter, Helen, has returned to Mistletoe, to take over the business or so the townsfolk think. In fact, she has come back to sell all her father's assets to interests from New York -- including the Boys Home, which they intend to convert to their Head Office! How does it all end? You'll have to wait for Christmas 2001 to find out!

The film stars Roma Downey (Touched By An Angel), Doris Roberts (Everybody Loves Raymond), and George Newbern (Father of the Bride).
